

Uncertain as A Horse Race

Is a policy in some of the existing fire insurance companies. Some of the companies now doing business would be totally upset by a few heavy losses—the companies we represent are the soundest in existence. If you take a policy in any of them and have a loss, you are just as sure as Uncle Sam is of getting the taxes.

Insurance

In a questionable company costs you just as much as it will in the best known. These—Aetna, Liverpool, London and Globe, Home, Queen, Phoenix of London, and Northern.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Holston Conference will convene at Tazewell on next Wednesday, the 28th inst., and will continue until the 2nd of July. There is likely to be a number of delegates at the meeting.

Col. Geo. A. Martin, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting his son, Mr. Geo. A. Martin at the latter's home, two miles east of Tazewell. The Colonel attended the Confederate reunion at Nashville, and on his return stopped off to spend a few days with his son.

The sheriff of the county is now engaged in posting the printed lists of those citizens of Tazewell county who have paid their poll taxes in time to vote at the coming election. If you are a registered voter and have paid your poll taxes within the time prescribed by law, go and inspect the list for your precinct and see if your name is on the list. We have in Tazewell an honest and faithful county treasurer, but it is impossible for any treasurer, no matter how capable and honest, to make off the lists without making a few mistakes. Some names may be left off, and yours may be among the number. If it is, report the fact to the treasurer at once and he will see that the mistake is rectified. There are only thirty days given from the time the lists are posted to make such corrections. Do not delay to follow our injunctions in the matter.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

Meet me at the (Boyer's) fountain.

Mrs. I. E. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Boyer are expected a few days at the Blue Sulphur Inn at Cedar Bluff.

Boyer sells everything for the house and kitchen.

Rev. Daniel E. Motley of Washington Christian College, Washington, D. C., will preach in the Christian church at Tazewell next Sunday morning and night.

Oil cooking stoves at Boyer's—ask them who have used them.

Next Sunday at 11 a. m. special services will be conducted at the Christian church, and all members are earnestly requested to attend.

Hammocks, croquet sets, tennis and as befall goods at Boyer's.

Mr. W. W. Wither Keen, vice-president of the South Atlantic Life Insurance Co., Richmond, Va., was at Tazewell on last Saturday in the interest of his excellent company.

Leave your order for Binder Twine with J. A. Grever & Co. It's cheap and they guarantee it.

Rev. W. M. Morrell, of Tazewell, Rev. L. W. Pierce, of Burke's Garden, and Gage Kelley of Unaka, have gone to Big Stone Gap to attend the annual convention of the Epworth League for Holston Conference.

Boyer has elegant things in cut glass, sterling silver and fine hand-painted china.

An infant daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Elmore died on Monday afternoon. The twin sister of this infant died a short time ago. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore will regret to hear of their bereavement.

Boyer has just received a handsome line of towels, napkins, table linen, sheets and pillow cases.

Rev. M. D. Mitchell, who is pastor of the Methodist church at Abingdon, has been elected President of Martha Washington College and Sullins College, to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Dr. Dyer.

Major T. P. Bowen and Captain A. J. Tynes, who attended the Confederate reunion at Louisville, are back home again, and express much pleasure over their attendance at the gathering of their old companions in arms.

On last Friday the Board of Supervisors awarded the contracts for the stone and brick work on the new county jail. Kinzer & Vermillion were awarded the stone work and C. F. Kitts the brick work. Messrs. Kinzer & Vermillion will proceed immediately to execute their contract for the stone work.

The Republicans of Pulaski county have nominated C. J. Gearing for circuit clerk and H. T. Einstein for the House of Delegates. They are both good and popular men and the Republicans of Pulaski are very confident of winning. Mr. Einstein is one of the leading cattle men of his county and section, and is well known in Tazewell.

Rev. J. N. Harman is spending this week at Lynchburg in attendance upon the annual meeting of the board of trustees of Virginia Christian College, of which board he is a member. He will also attend the course of lectures at the college now being delivered by Prof. McGarvey, of Lexington, Ky., and J. H. Haley, of Richmond, Va.

Judge Hedson will reconvene circuit court at this place on next Monday, the 26th inst. The case of the Commonwealth vs. Osborn is specially set for hearing on that day. Osborn is set for trial for the shooting and killing of Rees Lester about two months ago. Judge Henson announces that he will hear such other cases before adjourning the court as the lawyers may have ready for hearing.

Two Republican conventions will be held at Pearisburg, Giles county, today. One convention will nominate a candidate for the State Senate for the district composed of the counties of Wythe, Pulaski, Giles and Bland. The other will nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates, to represent Giles and Bland counties. The Hon. J. D. Honaker, of Bland county, is almost certain to be nominated for the Senate, and he is very apt to be a winner at the election in November. A strong man is also likely to be nominated for the House of Delegates.

Last week in our local columns we mentioned that the "Ratliff Hotel" is now crowded all the time. This was written as a local news item and not with any idea of injuring the hotel. We had been under the impression that no better compliment could be paid a hotel than to say that it was crowded all the time. It seems, however, that the manager of the "Ratliff Hotel" does not hold the same view, and last week he resented our statement by publishing a card in the Clinch Valley News, in which he says: "The manager of the Ratliff Hotel wishes to state that it is by no means crowded 'all the time' or at any time." It affords us pleasure to make this fact known to the public in the interest of the hotel in question, but we regret that Tazewell has gone backward to such an extent that it can care for the traveling public with one hotel without having it crowded at any time. This is the first time in fifty years that the town has had only one hotel.

A Very Sad Death.

On last Saturday morning, at about ten o'clock, one of the saddest deaths that has been known in this community for years occurred. The startling news swiftly moved over the town that Mrs. W. B. F. White had suddenly died. Her husband, Mr. W. B. F. White, had gone on the Thursday previous to Scott County, Va., to visit his mother, leaving his wife, as he thought, in perfect health.

Mrs. White before her marriage was Miss Alverta Moss, daughter of the late Joseph S. Moss. About four years ago she was married to Mr. W. B. F. White, one of our best and most popular citizens. She is survived by her husband and three children, the oldest child, a boy, is three years old and the youngest, a daughter, is not three weeks old.

The cause of her death was heart trouble.

Mrs. White was a member of the Lutheran Church and was a most estimable Christian lady. Her death will be a great loss to her church here and created in the community a feeling of profound sorrow. Mr. White was telegraphed for as soon as the death occurred, but did not reach home until Sunday morning at about ten o'clock. Deep sympathy for him was universal among his friends and neighbors.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock funeral services were held at the home of the deceased, conducted by Rev. Hugh Bailey, of the Lutheran Church, who was assisted by Revs. T. J. Eakridge and S. O. Hall. A large gathering of relatives, friends and neighbors assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed, and many of them followed the remains to the grave. The burial took place at the new cemetery immediately after the funeral services at the house.
